

Membership Benefits

1. Industry Updates and Feedback Channel

- RAS works closely with the relevant organizations to ensure that our members receive firsthand F&B industry related news and information in a timely manner.
- RAS participates actively in dialogue sessions with various Singapore government agencies to facilitate positive flow of feedback and information exchange between our government and the private sector
- RAS provides a platform for members's concerns to be heard and issues to be addressed by government officials through regular dialogue sessions and forum discussions initiated by RAS

2. Business Opportunities

- RAS organizes promotional activities and communication platforms for members to reach out effectively to their target customers.
- RAS organizes by-invitation only networking sessions regularly for management of restaurants and foodservice corporations to meet and exchange ideas
- RAS designs RAS-solely/jointly seminars for members to gain access to the latest initiatives, best practices and product updates to ensure that our members are always in the forefront of business efficiency and effectiveness know-how
- RAS works closely with organizations and government agencies to organize overseas trade mission/study trips for members to experience new business concepts and best practices at subsidized rate.
- RAS is a resource for members to upgrade the knowledge and skill sets of their workforce in the F&B sector.

JOIN US!